Two ambassador positions remain available: Accessibility and Trains.

A general executive position also is available.

June Speaker Mr George Konstantopoulos DTP Director Bus Network Planning and reform.

George provided a detailed update on the 2025 budget concerning new and improved bus route and service improvements across Melbourne (also noting some bus projects in regional areas). Noted that there has been sizeable investment in buses in the 2025 bus network.

George described new bus investment which is being channelled into Cardinia, Casey, Hume and Wyndham, particularly in growth areas.

George then spoke about the success of the changes delivered to the Torquay and Armstrong Creek service, Grattan Street routes 505 and 546, and Route 800 service.

Lastly, George introduced the new Bus Stop and Interchange Guidelines (BSIG) which detail the requirements for the planning and design of bus stop infrastructure for public transport services, including consideration to guide decision making.
